

News @ NJSIG

November 20, 2014

NEPHA Hotline Enhancements

Legal advice from employment law attorneys; toll-free or via email as often as members have questions

Online training tools including webinars, a state-specific employee handbook builder, Federal/State forms, posters, news, and more...

Saving Thousands of Dollars Preventing Losses

FYI: New Members & Members Not Yet Registered for the NEPHA Hotline:

Your district will be receiving a call from a representative from Enquiron to register you for the Enhanced NEPHA Hotline.

What does the ENHANCED NEPHA Hotline provide?

- Toll-free and email access to communicate directly with employment law attorneys and receive responses on many risk management and employment law issues
- Online training for supervisors and employees
- HRCI-certified, topic-specific informational webinars
- A state-specific employee handbook building tool
- Customizable risk management resources including Federal and State-Specific Forms and Posters
- HR Express Updates including popular Questions of the Month and Alerts

Member Services

Lisa White
Member Services Manager

Ivy Davis
Sr. Member Services Representative

Debra Rice

Sr. Technical Specialist

Keith Skeba

Member Services Training Supervisor

Lauren Schilling

Communications Specialist

For More Information:

Visit us at www.njsbaig.org

Remember: Any NJSIG member with an Errors and Omissions Policy can always call the Hotline at 201-623-1223 to receive legal advice and direction before an adverse action is taken with regards to an employee.

Proud Partners:

NJSIG

Cleary Giacobbe Alfieri Jacobs, LLC

XL Insurance